5 Reasons to Sponsor Our Monthly Magazine ...

- We are an independent, Arizona-grown Non-Profit Publication serving Arizona for over 15 years now.
- Focused, quality regional circulation. The Noise is the one publication visitors and locals pick up on a regular basis.
- Incredible value!
"Exposure value" is measured by "CPM" — cost per thousand. In other words, how much it costs to reach 1,000 people. To calculate CPM, take the rate of a full page, divide by the magazine's circulation and multiply by 1,000.
For example, our 12-edition rate for a full color full page is $700 — the circulation (number of copies printed & distributed) is 12,000 — the CPM is $59.30 ... Less than 6¢ an impression!
For less than the cost of handbills or flyers, with more interesting content than the phone book and without the waste of junk mail, we deliver your business to the new clients and customers you want!
- Sponsoring the Noise exposes your business & brand to thousands of folks, folks who matter, folks in all the right places, for not a whole lot of money.
- When you consider the dedication to our readers, the skilled craft of our artists and writers, and our focused distribution, it's plain to see there is no greater value than the Noise.

ARIZONA'S ORIGINAL MONTHLY

Your Market is ARIZONA!

Since 2001, we are Arizona's variety monthly, chock-full of quality writing and stunning visual reproduction, a strategy aimed at engaging visitors and citizens from many walks of life.

Our audience is: sharp, young at heart, more likely to hold college degrees, attend art shows, theatre, live music concerts and festivals; be involved in the community, tool around in the garden, go for a hike, and look to the future. As tourists and locals, they like to have a good time in our state's most sought-after territory, dining out and enjoying good conversation over coffee, a smoothie, or glass of beer or wine.

Readership & Circulation

We distribute to 300+ destination locations throughout the state, with a per-edition monthly readership of 50,000+. We're regularly in 15 Northern Arizona communities — Flagstaff, Winslow, Williams, Sedona, Village of Oak Creek, Cornville, Cottonwood, Clarkdale, Jerome, Prescott, Prescott Valley, Camp Verde, Payson, Pine and Strawberry — serving a combined regional population of 190,000 Arizonans who witness 12 million domestic and foreign tourists visiting annually. And this Autumn, we've added select distribution to the downtowns of Phoenix and Tucson!

People pick us up free of charge in the state's most popular cafes and restaurants, wineries and breweries, grocery and retail stores, hotels, lodges, and resorts, college campuses, galleries, museums and visitors' centers. Readers bring us home, saving editions for reference and monthly reminder.

Surveys indicate a high pass-around rate (2-5+), and the magazine is so popular, distributors often hold reservations for copies. Our shelf-life and "upcycled" printing is conscientious to demand — meeting one of our native goals as a sustainable periodical.

Sponsoring the NOISE

As an Arizona 501c3 non-profit publication, sponsoring the magazine is easy and a great way to reduce your tax liability, locally and within the arts community.

Our focused circulation, profile, and popular area of origin provide sponsors a unique means to reach active, mindful citizens and visitors to the area.

Though free on the stands, we are a valued publication, like no other.

Reserve space in the upcoming edition!
